

If I, a satisfied paying customer of satellite radio, want traffic and weather where I travel, I should be able to receive these services that are offered to me. I, respectfully, reject the National Association of Broadcasters petition against satellite radio. After all, this is America where we welcome competition and better quality, not stifling competition. This does all improve our way of life and help everyone involved. Thank you for your time.